EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alan Kopecki on March 16, 2006.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In line 12 of claim 15, the phrase "A system" has been changed to read --the system--.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 15-29 are currently pending and are allowed.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Hart, Jr. et al. (U. S. Patent 6,714,835) teaches a system for preparing mailpieces that including a inserter system for assembling mailpieces in a mailing job is controlled in accordance with mailpiece records in a corresponding mailing control file.

In regarding to independent claims 15 and 28-29, Hart taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest registering an inherent item-type property of a physical postal item, generating a property code representing the registered property, comparing the generated property code with the reference code which represents the item-type property, in response to at least a defined extent of agreement between the compared property code and the reference code, selecting the setting code associated with said reference code, wherein the reference code, the setting code, and the property code are not attached to the at least one physical postal item.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
